

Wednesday, June 7ROOM 1800 PAHL Building 89*National surveillance update, AMR, cross-species

8:30 AM	Andrea Osborn	Development of Innovative Surveillance Methods with the Community for Emerging and Zoonotic Diseases
8:45 AM	Andrea Osborn	Development of innovative surveillance methods with the Community for Emerging and Zoonotic Diseases
9:00 AM	Anatoliy Trokhymchuk	Routine antimicrobial susceptibility testing data generated by a public animal health diagnostic laboratory: challenges and opportunities to antimicrobial resistance surveillance
9:15 AM	Jim Goltz	Passive Tick Surveillance in New Brunswick: Translating Data into Information and Intelligence
9:30 AM	Kristen Mesires	Evaluation of real-time PCR reagents for the identification of influenza virus RNA
9:45 AM	Christa Arsenault	Overview of the Ontario Animal Health swine surveillance network to improve disease emergency preparedness and its linkage to the Canadian Swine Health Information Network
10:00-10:30	COFFEE BREAK

Fish

10:30 AM	Marcia Chiasson	Antimicrobial Resistance in Ontario Aquaculture
10:45 AM	Roz Stevenson	Laboratory Detection Approaches to Fish Pathogen Surveillance in Ontario

Cross-species

11:00 AM	Felipe Reggetti	Qualitative LC-MS/MS method for the detection of desmethylbromethalin in adipose tissue
11:15 AM	Wendy Witbeck	Choosing and Interpreting Diagnostic Testing in an environment of increasing technology